Plaintiff

v.

JM Automotive Group, Inc./
Superior 1 Auto Sales, Inc., d/b/a Superior 1 Kia

Defendant.

) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ) DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE ) REQUIRED TO COMPLY WITH ) ADMINISTRATIVE SUBPOENA

Upon the application of Plaintiff United States of America, and based upon said Plaintiff's Memorandum and Declarations of Debra R. Williams and Michael Rank in support thereof, and sufficient cause appearing:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant JM Automotive Group,
Inc./Superior 1 Auto Sales, Inc., d/b/a Superior 1 Kia,

1 show cause, if any there be, why this Court should not issue
2 Plaintiff's [Proposed] Order for Defendant to Comply with 3 Administrative Subpoena, requiring said Defendant to mail by 4 certified mail the documents described below to: Debra R.
5 Williams, Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related
6 Unfair Employment Practices, U.S. Department of Justice, 950
7 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW. NYAV, Suite 9000, Washington, DC 20530,
8 within 30 days of said Order, which was duly issued in the Matter
9 of JM Automotive Group, Inc./Superior 1 Auto Sales, Inc., d/b/a 10 Superior 1 Kia.

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any Opposition by Defendant to 12 the issuance of Plaintiff's "[Proposed] Order for Defendant to 13 Comply with Administrative Subpoena" shall be filed and served
14 upon Plaintiff no later than 7 days after the service of this 15 Order on Defendant, and that any Reply by Plaintiff to such 16 Opposition shall be filed and served no later than 7 days after 17 the receipt by Plaintiff of Defendant's Opposition. The matter
18 will then be submitted for decision without a hearing.

19 The failure by Defendant to file and serve a timely
20 Opposition may be deemed a consent to the issuance of Plaintiff's 21 "[Proposed] Order for Defendant to Comply with Administrative 22 Subpoena".

23 Plaintiff's counsel shall, upon receipt of this order, serve 24 it on Defendant's counsel by telefax and by overnight delivery.
